Kula San Maui's Healing Place Book Presentation and Signing

Saturday, November 13 - 10:30 am
JCCH Gallery Theater

Join us for a presentation by Dr. Patricia Brown as she explores her latest book Kula San Maui's Healing Place. During the early 20th century, Hawai'i's immigrant groups were among those adversely impacted by tuberculosis, the dreaded "white plague" that spread throughout the Hawai'i's plantation communities. Among those affected by the disease were the Japanese, who comprised the largest ethnic group of tuberculosis patients at Kula Sanatorium, which had a reputation as a leading national and international health care institution. Kula San Maui's Healing Place, a 325-page pictorial history book by Dr. Patricia Brown, chronicles the self-sustaining hospital's vibrant past and unravels the personal stories of patients, employees and community leaders.

The event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase in the Gift Shop. $49.95 (JCCH members receive 20% off).

Call 945-7633 Ext. 28 or email info@jcch.com for more information!
